TO

Ruth Oliver Hinds

To William Ernest Bird

In recognition of the efficient execution of his administrative duties, his personal interest in the individual student, and his far seeing vision for a greater Western Carolina Teachers College, we affectionately dedicate this page.

Cullowhee,* a Center of Culture

R.L. Madison

In the Carolina mountains,
Many, many years ago,
There dwelt a tribe of Indians,
Hunting, fishing, to and fro,-
Brave, beauty-loving Cherokees,
Who gave the mountains, vales, and streams
Picturesque, euphonious names
That ever will survive, it seems.
"Cullowhee" is one example-
Valley, mountain, babbling brook-
Bearing still the charming nomen
Given this sequestered nook.

In the "Valley of the Lilies,"
Lovely vale called "Cullowhee;"
In the "Valley of the Lilies,"-
Lilies white and fair to see,-
Stands a noted institution
For the training of the youth-
Of Old North State and otherwhere-
In character and truth;
In serving Heaven and humankind
With well-developed powers;
In making lives and livelihood
Count most through mortal hours.

In these beautiful environs,
Close to overarching blue;
In this salubrious region
Sought for health and pleasure too;
Far removed from noisy city,
Open country all around,
No distractions, no enticements,-
Busy students e'er are found.
Scholarship and zeal for service,
Honor, self-control, fair play,
High ideals are engendered,
Nurtured till they have full sway.

*Cherokee name, meaning "Vale of Lilies".

Why A College Annual

THERE are those who say a College Annual represents an utter extravagance, a waste of hard-earned money. It is pointed out that the cost of the Annual not infrequently equals one precent of the total budget of the college! The money spent could appropriately be used for scholarships, we are told. Nearly a score of hundred-dollar scholarships could be maintained at Western Carolina with the money annually spent for the CATAMOUNT. Is it a waste?

The question is pertinent. If there were no recognizable values beyond the patent ones of putting into permanent form a cross-section of campus life, perhaps of satisfying the vanity of students by a display of their pictures singly and in groups, many thoughtful persons would join those who decry the whole affair as inexcusable youthful extravagance. But are there not possible compensating values in preparing and issuing a creditable college annual? The work of the editors, contributors and business managers calls into play often mental powers and attitudes not adequately called out in the classroom: Artistic discrimination, judgment of balance and appropriateness of materials, a certain creativeness in cartoons and illustrations, responsibility as to contracts, co-operation. These are values which certainly should accrue to the small groups responsible for issuing an annual. I know of writers who got their first literary thrills, their first sense of having creative gifts, from experience with student publications. And the student body and faculty certainly share in the values of stimulated pride in and loyalty to the college, when a creditable annual is created. Perhaps after all, then, the enterprise of getting out college annuals is not an unmitigated waste. The right workers, laboring in the right spirit, with industrious application seasoned with intelligence, can extract educational and spiritual values from almost every enterprise.

Alma Mater

I

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Faithful, kind, and true;
Every son and every daughter
Offers praise to you.

CHORUS

Hail to the dearest spot of all;
Hail to Cullowhee!
Light and life and fond devotion,
All we owe to thee.

II

Purple shrouds and colors golden
Streaming everywhere
Swell our hearts with pride for olden
Days and friendships dear.

III

Under shade trees' friendly bowers
Voices ever gay
Mingle with the breath of flowers
And the songbirds' lay.

IV

Shout aloud with one long chorus,
Voices full and free,
Teachers for us, God up o'er us,
Praise to Cullowhee!

Class History

In the fall of 1936 the largest freshman class in the history of the college up to that time registered at Western Carolina Teachers College. We were full of ambition, and dreamed dreams of the great things we would do during our years in college. A great many of those dreams have been realized, a great many are yet to be fulfilled. Year by year the record grew fuller, until now in our last days in college we review year by year the things that have been accomplished.

1936-37

John Henry Gesser elected president of the freshman class, Willard Lovingood, vice-president, and Josephine Morgan, secretary-treasurer.

Kathryn Sandlin elected to Senate.

Freshman dance given in the spring.

1937-38

Josephine Morgan, Claude Carpenter, intercollegiate debaters.

Ruth Barton, Theodora Perkins, Josephine Morgan, appointed to Editorial Staff of Western Carolinian.

Kathryn Sandlin and Deane Roberson elected to May Court.

Varsity Basketball—Horace Meredith, Lyndon White.

Horace Meredith, Sara Welch, Claude Carpenter elected to Senate.

Lloyd Bryson elected president of day students.

1938-39

Horace Meredith, elected president of class, Joe Wallin, vice-president, and Kathryn Sandlin, secretary-treasurer.

Varsity basketball—Lyndon White, Horace Meredith.

Varsity baseball—Hale Lanier, Gray Hampton, Horace Meredith, Lyndon White.

Varsity football—Johnson Saunders, Gray Hampton, Charlie Gray, Eugene Francis.

The class gave the Junior-Senior banquet and dance in the spring. The committee in charge was Horace Meredith, Kathryn Sandlin, Deane Frazier.

Charlie Gray was elected president of the student body for 1939-40. Horace Meredith, vice-president.

Jane Greenlee, Deane Frazier, Ruth Barton were elected to the May Court.

Jane Greenlee was electd editor of the Catamount for 1939-40, and Joe Wallin was elected business manager.

Ruth Barton elected editor-in-chief of the Western Carolinian. Genevieve Summers appointed associate editor.

Edna Dinkins elected president of Women's House Government Association, Josephine Morgan elected vice-president, and Kathryn Sandlin was elected treasurer.

Lee Phoenix elected president of Men's House Government, Johnson Saunders, vice-president. Deane Frazier selected for Dean's List.

1939-40

Genevieve Summers was elected chief councilman of Robertson Hall.

Johnson Saunders, Josephine Morgan listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Deane Frazier, Margaret Wilson and Ernest Elliott selected for Dean's List.

Jane Greenlee elected maid of honor to the May Queen. Deane Frazier, Kathryn Sandlin, Annie Lee Bryson, Sara Welch elected to May Court.

Varsity basketball—Bill Peek, Lyndon White, Horace Meredith.

Senior Superlatives Elected: Best all-around girl—Sara Welch; best all-around boy—Judson Edwards; most popular girl—Dorothy Brigman; most popular boy—Johnson R. Saunders, Jr.; best-looking girl—Jane Greenlee; best-looking boy—William Silver, Jr.; boy with best personality—Joe Wallin; girl with best personality—Kathryn Sandlin; Leap Year took its toll of the desirable males in the class. We took practice teaching!

Coach Whatley

The 1939 Catamounts, under a new coaching staff, with plenty of new material to bolster the old players, had prospects of a good season. The team, crippled by constant injuries and not being

The 1939-40 bask tball team had a brilliant outlook. All of last year's team, with one exception, returned and new talent was very prevalent. They worked into such a fine combination that they were feared by all the conference. There was great teamwork and several brilliant stars to make the team a beautiful combination to watch on the floor. The team rose to the heights by defeating Elon College 50-48, only to be nosed out by Appalachian by the same score. Prospects for next year are not so bright as the team loses four men by graduation, including Ardrey, their stalwart center, but they should still have a winning combination next season.

CATAMOUNT

Our studio is equipped with the Fluorescent Photographic Lighting System, including the big 8-tube deluxe model lamp. This system is the very latest no-glare, no-heat, no-eye-strain lighting for studio portraiture, and it produces the nearest approach to actual daylight. We have just added a portable model for home and college work.
